

Rackhouse Reserve

Blend of strong ales aged in Kentucky bourbon barrels

After tasting through our rackhouse of spirits barrel-aged beers, we selected a complex blend that evolves as you drink. Rackhouse Reserve incorporates ales aged in a variety of bourbon barrels for up to 18 months, culminating in a harmony of warm flavors reminiscent of caramel, toasted marshmallow, spicy oak and dark chocolate.

Food pairings: Beef tenderloin, chicken mole, miso squash soup, Rogue River Blue cheese, raspberry mousse cake
